

Program Goals

Institutional Learning Goals:

Exploring: Students will broaden their understanding of the world in its beauty, diversity, and complexity.

Preparing: Students will acquire knowledge and develop skills to serve in their neighborhoods, organizations, and businesses.

Integrating: Students will connect and apply knowledge and skills to their personal and professional lives.

Calling: Students will discern what God has called them to be and do.

School of Business Program Learning Outcomes (Core/Shared 5):

Critical Thinking: Professional graduates think critically and apply systems thinking to decision-making. ILG: Exploring, and Preparing

Problem-solving and Application: Professional graduates apply functional area concepts and theories appropriately.

ILG: Exploring, Integrating, and Preparing

Professional Communication: Professional graduates communicate effectively by preparing and delivering oral and written presentations using appropriate technologies.

ILG: Preparing and Integrating

Professional and Social Responsibility: Professional graduates align personal, professional, and organizational conduct with ethical and professional standards of conduct including an understanding of corporate social responsibility.

ILG: Integrating

Vocational Awareness: Professional graduates demonstrate an understanding of God's ongoing story in the world and their responsibility to God, self, organization, and the world as a part of that ongoing story.

ILG: Calling

RISE Mentoring "Course Learning Outcomes":

Lifelong Learning: Students will explore and broaden their understanding of the personal and professional growth and lifelong learning.

PLO: All

ILG: Exploring

Social Skill Development: Students will further prepare for the workplace by pursuing growth in social skills for personal and professional success.

PLO: All

ILG: Preparing

Critical Self-Reflection: Students will critically reflect on their current and future self in preparation for the workplace and communities in which they will serve.

PLO: All

ILG: Integrating

Vocational Growth: Students will further develop an awareness of and understanding of their place in God's ongoing story and service in the world.

PLO: All; with emphasis on Vocational Awareness

ILG: Calling