

CRIMSON COMPANION

A NEW STUDENT GUIDE TO RU | 2023-2024

MEET YOUR CRIMSON LEADERS

Trent Fagan

is a junior mass communication major from Warren, MI who also happens to be (Student Body) President.

Israel Henson

is a sophomore behavioral science major from Pontiac, MI. Feel free to dare him to eat just about anything!

Abigail Aldrich

is a sophomore early childhood education major from Capac, MI who was voted Class Mom in high school. Aww :)

N'Oreal Boyer

is a senior business management major from Detroit, MI who owns 123 pairs of shoes...and counting.

Tyrell Vanover III (Terry)

is a senior sports management major from Fair Haven, MI who is undoubtedly the loudest fan at every RU basketball game.

Elijah Parrish

is a senior information systems programming major from Detroit, MI. When Eli isn't playing basketball, he's probably playing chess.

Skyler Hill

is a sophomore sports management major from Carlsbad, NM who ran cross country for five years and is now on RU's esports team.

Asyiona Rice

is a senior behavioral science major from Pontiac, MI who is the youngest of 12 siblings. You have to learn to be loud in this role—she channels that skill on RU's competitive cheer squad.

message from the PRESIDENT

Dear Warrior,

It is my immense pleasure and honor to welcome you to Rochester University! As you enter into this experience, the entire university community and I are excited to get to know you better, and to provide you with the support, encouragement and challenges you need to reach your potential and fulfill your aspirations.

Rochester University is a Christian academic community dedicated to investing in you so that you can grow and develop spiritually, vocationally, intellectually and socially. Each of these aspects of your identity will be nurtured and cultivated at RU. We welcome everyone to our table and place importance on the whole person.

I encourage you to fully participate in the academic and community life RU offers. Get to know your professors, study hard, read good books and take part in discussions with others on meaningful and important topics. Engage in the process of discernment and discovery of your life calling and purpose in God's world. Connect in relationship with others by participating in social events and activities. Visit and enjoy the wonderful business, recreational, and cultural activities of Rochester, Rochester Hills, and the greater Detroit area.

A life-transforming experience awaits you here at Rochester University. May God bless you richly as you get started.

Brian L. Stogner

YOUR RU JOURNEY

RISE

Year 1

Builds on relationships established during the recruitment process to assist students with their transition to college

Year 2

Provides SPACE for students to engage in meaningful conversation and community

Years 3 & 4

Connects students and professionals through a one-on-one mentorship program that promotes personal and vocational success

WARRIORS THRIVE

PREPARING FOR COLLEGE SUCCESS SEMINAR

If you are feeling any apprehension about transitioning to college, this seminar will provide the confidence booster you need. It is designed to give you the opportunity to navigate an online college classroom while exploring material that will provide a leg up once the school year begins.

Time Commitment:
Approximately 10 to 15 hours to fully complete

Facilitated by:
Erica Suszek
Director of Student Success & Well-being esuszek@rochesteru.edu
Debi Rutledge
Director of Academic Support & Retention
drutledge@rochesteru.edu

Getting Started:
The seminar is delivered via Canvas, RU's online learning platform. In late July, you will receive a link in your RU email to self-enroll in the course.

MUST DO:

If you have not already begun using your Rochester University email account, now is the time to make that transition. Going forward, all communication will be sent to that email account. You will need to have it set up in order to log into Canvas to begin the seminar, then your first semester at RU.

What I found most helpful was the mention of another perspective for each topic.”

“This seminar helped me the most with navigating Canvas, so now I don't have those few awkward weeks of technical difficulties.”

“THE SEMINAR GAVE ME THE MOTIVATION I NEEDED TO GET READY FOR SCHOOL.”

COMMUNITY life + worship

THE COMMUNITY LIFE + WORSHIP (CLW) PROGRAM

at Rochester University exists through chapel and Campus Ministry programming, diversity initiatives, service learning opportunities and more. Each of these experiences lead to faith formation among our students.

Chapel

is a dedicated time the campus community gathers together for worship, teaching and ministry-driven programming.

Campus Ministry

initiatives focus on developing programs and learning opportunities that nurture spiritual growth for students.

Service Learning

efforts integrate meaningful community service and reflection to enrich the Rochester University learning experience, teach civic responsibility and strengthen communities. These collective efforts are aimed at building community in a diverse world, affirming Christian values and instilling a greater sense of vocation.

Participation in Community Life + Worship is required student engagement.

- + Refer to the Student Handbook for a detailed overview and description of the CLW program.
- + Find a full Chapel calendar and list of CLW opportunities in the RU app and your MY RU Portal.

Residential students are given visitation privileges that permit guests of the opposite gender in a resident's room. However, Residence Life staff reserve the right to terminate an open house or revoke guest privileges.

Open House Rules

1. Open house visitation hours are 5–10 p.m. daily.
2. No person is permitted in the wing/floor/hallway/stairwell of the opposite gender except during open house hours.
3. The door to the resident's room must remain wide open at all times.
4. No individual is allowed to lie on any bed in rooms with guests.
5. There must be adequate lighting in all rooms when visitors of the opposite gender are present.
6. All guests must be escorted while in the building.
7. The resident hosting a visitor is responsible for all actions of his/her guest.
8. Lobbies are open for co-ed visitation at all times. However, they may be closed at certain times at the discretion of the Residence Life staff.

Resident Assistant (RA)

Resident Assistants serve in the residence halls by mentoring residents, encouraging residents to become involved in the residential and campus community, and easing residential transitions.

Academic Peer Mentor

Academic Peer Mentors serve residential students through individual tutoring and supporting residents in discovering and fostering their unique strengths and abilities.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

We have a saying around here:

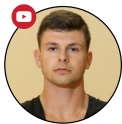

Once a
WARRIOR, always a
WARRIOR.

With nearly 12,000 alumni around the world, the RU Alumni Association seeks to enhance alumni and student connections to the university, while fostering lifetime and active engagement. Every graduate, as well as traditional students who have completed at least 36 credit hours, automatically become members of the alumni association.

WE LOVE SHARING YOUR STORIES.
